TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Dear colleagues,

I have a pleasure to recommend you Mr. Alen Ajanović, senior student of Art Academy in Sarajevo.

He comes from a good family, his father Fadil a craftsman, his mother Rada a housewife and juror in municipal court Sarajevo for 17 years now.

During the war Alan was a soldier of BaH Army. He was 19 when he volunteered in May of 1992, and was demobilized in May of 1996.

He is communicative, responsible, reliable and industrious young man, and it is in him to work steadily. Within a program of students' exchange he was in Slovenia and Belgium where he won several awards, which speaks for itself. Mr. Ajanović speaks English fluently and his computer skills such as Microsoft Word, Excel, Windows 95 and 98, Internet explorer, Netscape and Corel are needed for his study, so he is very familiar with them.

I am firmly confirmed that his abilities and gifts are going to be fully recognized in his future employment, whatever it is.

Sincerely yours,

The Ombudsman of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Branka Raguz

Letter of recommendation

Alen Ajanovic was an employee in Prime Time production since 01.01.2010. and shortly after that he joined a team working on the animated film BIRDS LIKE US. Because of his professionalism, work ethics and creativity he was trusted with different tasks within production which he handled with professionalism.

Alen worked on 2D-3D animation, lighting, shading, rendering, compositing in After Effects, depending on task requirements.

Alen Ajanovic is a creative person, always ready to give more than what is expected of him. He has a professional attitude toward his job and respect to the production's deadlines combined with an optimistic and healthy attitude toward his colleagues as well as his employers.

It is our pleasure to recommend him to a future employer and we guarantee they will have a hard working and gifted employee.

Sincerely,
